

Dekomposition Method for Quasi-linear Abstract Hyperbolic Equation

N. Dikhaminjia, J. Rogava, M. Tsiklauri

There is considered abstract hyperbolic equation with Lipschitz continuous operator, where the main operator is self-adjoint positive definite and represents a sum of two similar operators. For this equation there is constructed high order of accuracy decomposition scheme. This scheme is based on rational splitting of cosine-operator function.