On the Uniqueness of Elementary Volumes

Tamar Kasrashvili

The main purpose of this contribution is to consider the uniqueness property of elementary G-volumes from the general point of view and to investigate the behavior of this property under some set-theoretical properties of G-orbits, where G is a group of isometries of the Euclidean space R^n $(n \geq 1)$.