

On Testing the Hypothesis of Equality Distribution Densities

Abstract

In the paper, the tests are constructed for the checking hypothesis of equality distribution densities in $p \geq 2$ independent samples. The limiting power of the constructed tests is found for some local "close" alternatives. The constructed tests are compared with some known classical tests.

speaker: professor Elizbar Nadaraya