

On the approximate solution of the Cauchy problem for the second-order non-linear operator-differential equation

Jemal Rogava<sup>a)</sup>, Mikheil Tsiklauri<sup>b)</sup>

a)Iv. Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University, I. Vekua Institute of Applied Mathematics

b)Missouri University of Science and Technology

It is considered the Cauchy problem for the second-order non-linear operator-differential equation in the Hilbert space. We look for the approximate solution of the stated problem using a three-layer, semi-discrete scheme. Stability and convergence of this scheme are proved.